Brian loves music and sings in the tenor section of the choir at Humbercrest. Brian officially became a Licenced Lay Worship Leader with Shining Waters Regional Council in October 2020 and with Horseshoe Falls Region in May 2022. Since then, he continues to craft and sharpen his preaching skills at his home church and others. Outside of the many things Brian does for the church, he is the full-time Office Manager for The Riverwood Conservancy just downstream from Streetsville United. In his spare time, Brian loves learning about local history, travelling (when it's possible), charting his family tree, preparing food for his friends and family, and being out in nature.
